Freedom Trails at the Crossroads

3rd National Underground Railroad Summit

This year's conference takes a cue from our host city, Indianapolis, often referred to as the "Crossroads of America" and explores the Underground Railroad as a meeting point and zone of contact where cultures, geographies, regions, races, ethnicities, religious and political ideologies, met and interacted. In addition to exploring past Underground Railroad connections, the conference seeks to explore ways in which present day interest in the story of the Underground Railroad transcends local history in favor of making national connections with global significance.

The four day conference will feature pre and post-conference events, exhibits, speakers, and workshops, hosted at the Hilton-Indianapolis North. Make your reservations early at 1-800-Hiltons to receive the conference rate.

We look forward to seeing YOU in 2009!

2009 Conference Co-Hosts: Georgetown College Underground Railroad Research Institute, the National Park Service Network to Freedom Program, Indiana Freedom Trails, and the Indiana Department of Natural Resources (DHPA)
